EPHESIANS 2:19-22

- ¹⁹ Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God;
- ²⁰ And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone;
- ²¹ In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth un-
to an holy temple in the Lord:
- ²² In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

WELCOME AND WHO WE ARE

On behalf of Pastor Tyrone, Lady J, and the New Oak Grove Missionary Baptist Church family we welcome you! New Oak Grove is a body of baptized believers who love the Lord Jesus Christ. Our God has been faithful to this branch of Zion and we marvel in the wondrous and mighty works that He has, and continues to bestow upon us. We come together to worship the only true and living God in the beautiful and picturesque Blackwater section of southern Virginia Beach, VA; and are delighted that you were led to worship with us. It is truly our honor and privilege to have you here with us. If there is anything that we can do to make your stay with us a more pleasurable one, please feel ask for assistance from an Usher or the person sitting next to you. Thank you for worshipping with us and we pray that something will be said or done to make your day the better!

EPHESIANS 2:19-22

No Longer Strangers

By Ray Stedman

Paul says that you who have come to Christ are no more strangers and foreigners. First, you are fellow citizens with God's people. You have entered a new kingdom. You have changed your citizenship; you are now under another authority. We take for granted the rights of American citizenship so much that we have almost forgotten the fact that we are under authority. The government has certain powers over us. We are under authority—that is the first mark of citizenship.

But the thing that makes us rejoice in our citizenship is that we have certain privileges. When I travel abroad I am always glad that I am an American citizen. Protection is extended to me that others do not have. In the kingdom of God you have the protection of a King. There is power available—resurrection power, the kind that works beyond human thinking and planning. And God invites you to call upon Him for that kind of resource, whenever you need it.

Then, second: members of God's household. This is an advance on the first point. We are members of God's own intimate family. A child always outranks any ambassador or governor or secretary. A biography of Abraham Lincoln related an incident that occurred when the president was involved with his cabinet in a crucial meeting. They were in the cabinet room when there came a knock at the door. There stood Willy, the president's ten-year-old son, wanting to see his father. Lincoln left all the cabinet members while he saw what Willy wanted. Willy outranked all the others. This is the great truth that Paul is trying to bring home to our hearts—we have access to a Father who is the King, with tremendous authority and power in the affairs of the world.

Third, Paul goes on to an even closer relationship: you are built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the chief cornerstone. Perhaps that seems something of an anticlimax. After all, a building is rather cold and impersonal compared with the relationship of a family. But the apostle is actually moving closer, to a more intimate relationship, because he is stressing the closeness of the members of the very habitation of God—to one another and to the Lord.

It is possible for the members of a family to be scattered throughout the earth. But in the structure of a building, no separation of stones that make up the walls is possible. If the stones were separated, the building would crumble. So the apostle really is bringing us into a more intimate relationship.

*A new year has unfolded with new opportunities to explore doors will open for new experiences,
new adventures with the Lord.*

*Remember not the former things,
the things of this past year,
the Lord will do new things in us,
much more than we are aware.*

*For He will make a way for us
as we put our trust in Him and He will guide our every step by His presence we have within.*

*What God has placed within our hearts,
we find we'll be able to do
if we look for the opportunities,
we'll see the door to go through.*

We mustn't let anything hold us back but rise up and take our place and be all that God wants us to be with a fresh touch of His grace.
