WELCOME AND WHO WE ARE

On behalf of Pastor Tyrone, Lady J, and the New Oak Grove Missionary Baptist Church family we welcome you! New Oak Grove is a body of baptized believers who love the Lord Jesus Christ. Our God has been faithful to this branch of Zion and we marvel in the wondrous and mighty works that He has, and continues to bestow upon us. We come together to worship the only true and living God in the beautiful and picturesque Blackwater section of southern Virginia Beach, VA. We are delighted that you were led to worship with us. It is truly our honor and privilege to have you here with us. If there is anything that we can do to make your stay with us a more pleasurable one, please feel ask for assistance from an Usher or the person sitting next to you. Thank you for worshipping with us and we pray that something will be said or done to make your day the better!

MISSION STATEMENT

“Bringing God’s People Up To God’s Standards By Being a Doer of The Word of God”
-Isaiah 59:19, James 1:22-25

VISION STATEMENT

The Vision of New Oak Grove Missionary Baptist Church is to transform the lives of its people that they may live up to God’s standards by upholding the word of God. We will impact our church, our community, our youth, young adults, and seniors in a positive manner by being relevant in the world. We will achieve our goal using our Core Values. We will remember our past, live in the present, and establish our future on a blessed hope in our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

CORE VALUES

In alignment with our Mission and Vision, New Oak Grove’s Core Values describe how we will interact with each other, and the means by which we will fulfill our mission.

- Integrity - We will be honest and in adherence to the values of doing right when no one is looking.
- Love - We will demonstrate adoration and care for God’s people and His creation regardless of the situation.
- Dedication - We will be committed and supportive to the work of ministry at New Oak Grove.
- Unity - We will stand together as one body on one accord, regardless of our individual differences.
- Respect - We will esteem and value other's perspective as one’s self.
- Faith - We will be visionaries and walk by faith and not by sight.
- Teachable - We will keep an open mind and receive instruction to equip us that we may grow and mature in knowledge and understanding.
- Relevant - We will be practical and focused on issues and matters of today that may affect the church body.

FIRST TIME GUESTS

Prayer To Welcome the New Year

From Christianity.com

As we stand on the threshold of a new year, we come before you with hearts full of anticipation and gratitude. We thank you for the gift of life and for the journey that has brought us to this moment. Lord, we acknowledge the highs and lows of the past year—the joys and sorrows, the victories and challenges. Through it all, your presence has been our constant source of strength and hope. As we welcome this new year, we place it in your capable hands. We trust in your plan and purpose for our lives, knowing that your ways are higher than our ways, and your thoughts are higher than our thoughts. We pray for your guidance in the coming year. Lead us in the paths of righteousness and wisdom. Help us to discern your will in all that we do and to walk in obedience to your Word. Fill our hearts with hope, joy, and peace. May your love and grace shine brightly in our lives and be a source of light in a world that often needs it. Lord, grant us the courage to face the unknown with faith and trust. In times of uncertainty, remind us that you are our anchor, our refuge, and our strength. We thank you for the lessons and blessings of the past and look forward to the opportunities and adventures that the future holds. May we use our time, talents, and resources to bring glory to your name and to be a blessing to others. In the name of Jesus, we welcome the new year with open hearts, renewed faith, and the confidence that you will be with us every step of the way. Amen

Let's Celebrate

Each year, the King Holiday Observance calls us to reflect, rejoice, and recommit, to honor the enduring legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and the transformative power of his vision. As the living memorial to Dr. King, The King Center leads this global charge, offering education and training in Nonviolence365™ and creating space for people everywhere to engage, learn, and unite.

In 2026, we gather under the strategic theme: Mission Possible II: Building Community, Uniting a Nation the Nonviolent Way. This theme is more than a banner; it's a blueprint for action. It guides our programming, fuels our outreach, and anchors our commitment to building the Beloved Community; a world where injustice ends, violence is replaced by compassion, and love becomes the prevailing force.

Through dynamic events leading up to the King Holiday on January 19th, 2026, The King Center will spotlight both Dr. King's groundbreaking work and Mrs. Coretta Scott King's visionary leadership in institutionalizing his legacy. Together, they laid the foundation for a movement that continues to shape hearts, minds, and policies across the globe.

We invite you to be part of this journey. Stand with us. Learn with us. Build with us. Let's unite a nation... boldly, bravely, and the nonviolent way.

THE POWER OF A TRANSFORMED LIFE

from BibleHub.com

The concept of a transformed life is central to Christian theology and practice, emphasizing the profound change that occurs when an individual encounters the saving grace of Jesus Christ. This transformation is not merely a change in behavior but a fundamental renewal of the heart and mind, leading to a life that reflects the character and purposes of God.

BIBLICAL FOUNDATION: The transformation of a believer's life is rooted in the New Testament teachings, particularly in the writings of the Apostle Paul. In Romans 12:2, Paul exhorts believers: "Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to discern what is the good, pleasing, and perfect will of God" . This verse highlights the contrast between worldly conformity and spiritual transformation, underscor- ing the importance of a renewed mind in discerning God's will.

In 2 Corinthians 5:17, Paul further elaborates on this transformation: "Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come!" . This passage emphasizes the radical nature of the change that occurs in a believer's life, marking the transition from the old self, characterized by sin and separation from God, to the new self, reconciled and renewed in Christ.

THE ROLE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT: The power of a transformed life is made possible through the work of the Holy Spirit. In John 3:5-6, Jesus explains to Nicodemus the necessity of being "born of water and the Spirit" to enter the kingdom of God, indicating the Spirit's role in regeneration. The Holy Spirit indwells believers, empowering them to live accord- ing to God's will and producing spiritual fruit in their lives. Galatians 5:22-23 lists the fruit of the Spirit, including love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control, as evidence of a transformed life.

SANCTIFICATION AND GROWTH: The transformation of a believer's life is an ongoing process known as sanctifica- tion. Philippians 1:6 assures believers of God's continued work in their lives: "being confident of this, that He who began a good work in you will continue to perfect it until the day of Christ Jesus" . Sanctification involves growing in holiness and becoming more like Christ, a process that requires cooperation with the Holy Spirit and obedience to God's Word.

Ephesians 4:22-24 instructs believers to "put off your former way of life, your old self, which is being corrupted by its deceitful desires; to be renewed in the spirit of your minds; and to put on the new self, created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness" . This passage highlights the active role believers must take in pursuing righteousness and holiness, shedding the old self and embracing the new identity in Christ.

IMPACT ON THE WORLD: A transformed life not only benefits the individual but also serves as a powerful testimony to the world. Jesus calls His followers to be "the light of the world" and "the salt of the earth" (Matthew 5:13-14), indicating the influence believers are to have in their communities. A life transformed by Christ stands as a witness to the reality of God's love and power, drawing others to seek the same transformation.

In Acts 1:8, Jesus promises His disciples that they will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon them, enabling them to be His witnesses "in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth" . This empower- ment is not limited to the early church but extends to all believers, who are called to live out their faith boldly and authentically, impacting the world for Christ.

CONCLUSION: The power of a transformed life is a testament to the grace and sovereignty of God, who calls individu- als out of darkness into His marvelous light (1 Peter 2:9). Through the work of the Holy Spirit, believers are continually renewed and equipped to live lives that glorify God and bear witness to His transformative power.
