EPHESIANS 2:19-22

- ¹⁹ Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God;
- ²⁰ And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone;
- ²¹ In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:
- ²² In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

HOME COMING (FAMILY AND FRIENDS DAY)
LECTIONARY COMMENTARY

The biblical idea of Jubilee provides a powerful picture of the joy of homecoming for the people of ancient Israel. Leviticus 25:10 is at the heart of the Biblical instructions regarding the Jubilee year celebration. The word “jubilee” comes from the Hebrew word yobel which means “ram’s horn.” This is significant because on the Day of Atonement a ram’s horn made into a type of trumpet (shophar) was used to sound the arrival of this extraordinary year and to proclaim liberty throughout the land. As noted in the text, this sacred year occurred once every fifty years and it required everyone to make a homecoming return to their ancestral homes and families. This sacred year dispensed grace and mercy throughout the land, righting the relationships of the people with the Lord, the land, and with one another. Jubilee provided Israelite society with radical restoration, characterized by a sacred year of repentance, rest, relief, return, reconciliation, and redemption. I would add three others: return, reconciliation and redemption.

- REPENTANCE- (Verse 9) ... on the day of atonement, you shall have the trumpet sounded throughout all your land.
- REST- (Verse 11) ... you shall not sow, or reap the after growth, or harvest the unpruned vines. (See also vv. 4-5.)
- RELEASE/RELIEF- The year of Jubilee proclaimed liberation to those who were enslaved. (Verse 10, see also vv. 39-41.)
- RETURN- (Verse 10) ...you shall return, every one of you, to your property and every one of you to your family.
- RECONCILIATION- (Verse 10) ...you shall return, every one of you, to your property and every one of you to your family.
- REDEMPTION- (Verses 23-24) ... The land shall not be sold in perpetuity, for the land is mine; with me you are but aliens and tenants. Throughout the land that you hold, you shall provide for the redemption of the land.

Jubilee ensured justice for the poor and protected future generations, ensuring that their inheritance would not be doomed by the folly or the misfortune of their forbears. The system of Jubilee provided a built-in deterrent against the sins of greed, hoarding and oppression. Because of Jubilee, all of the people had an ancestral home and were blessed with the joyful, restorative experience of homecoming.

When Jesus declared the acceptable year of the Lord in Luke 4:18-19, He was announcing the Gospel decree of Jubilee, restoring us home to His Kingdom. This decree is authoritative to the church as it calls us to a justice agenda in the world. This decree brings good news to the poor, liberty to the oppressed, and healing to those who are broken. This Jubilee decree brings us back to the security of home in our earthly journey regardless of our life circumstances because our true home, the Kingdom of God, is among us (Luke 17:22). This divine decree of Jubilee also provides us eternal security, because Jesus has gone to prepare a place for us, so that where He is, there may we also be. Jubilee points us triumphantly to that great day of heavenly homecoming.
